I WILL PARTNER WITH LAURAN BETHELL
IN MINISTRY!

Since 1986, LAURAN has been passionate about sharing the hope and healing of Jesus with victims of human trafficking and prostitution and offering prevention opportunities for those at risk. Lauran served in Chiang Mai, Thailand as the first director of New Life Center for 14 years before God led her to share her pioneering experiences as a global consultant in 2001. Based in Europe for 18 years, Lauran traveled throughout the world encouraging Christians in their anti-trafficking endeavors. Now living in California, she continues her ministry with victims of trafficking by advising, networking and conferencing in multiple, creative ways with the global organizations serving them.
